THE JEFFERSON Richmond, Va.

tional Bank of Newberry, S. C., and a hundred of whom are men and boys, was indicted on 162 charges of misapplication of funds. He was convicted by a jury on five counts and acquitted on the remaining 157. He was sentenced to serve five years in the Federal penitentiary.

Counsel for the defendan immediately appealed on the grounds of alleged error, but in the opinion handed down yesterday by Judge Goff it was held that the court below had not certed, and the sentence was affirmed. Carlisle will now have to serve one year in prison for each of the charges on which he was convicted.

A neat law point was decided in an opinion by Judge Pritchard affirming the decision of the court below in the case of the Wylie Permanent Camping Company, plaintiff in error, against Mrs. Gail V. Lynch, defendant in error; to the Circuit Court at Charleston, W. W. Va.

The plaintiff in error is a-corporation chartered under the laws of West Virginia, but doing business in the Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming. Its principal business is the operation of stage coaches for the use of tourists. The defendant in error is a resident of Ohio. While on her honeymoon with her husband she was a passenger in one of the coaches of the plaintiff in error which met with an accident, and she was seriously injured.
